

HEY DAY 2014

Hey Day was another resounding success, thanks to business donations, donations of goods for sale and of course, the buyers, volunteers and supporters of Hey Day.

Four generations working HEY DAY!

Elsie Larone has worked Hey Day since 1968, her daughters Jean Koopman, Heather Pitt; Granddaughter Kimberly Cote and Great Granddaughter Reese Cote carry on the tradition....

Young volunteers – Katelyn McGahey & Arden Leahy volunteered AND shopped!

Ferne Richardson presented a cheque for $2,888.35 to Jillian Johnston, winner of Hey Day's 50/50 Draw

The Acton's Corners ladies manning the linen table distinguished themselves with their lovely headwear!

Where Volunteers are needed at KDH

Volunteers are needed at

- At the Gift Shop/Coffee Bar
- On the patient ward delivering water and visiting with patients.
